To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to endorse Baseball, LTD in Huntington, WV. The facility is run by two professional Baseball pitchers, Tim and Jon Adkins. Both possess the knowledge to know what it takes to become a good baseball player at all levels.

As a scout for the Atlanta Braves, Baseball, LTD has become a valuable resource for me in keeping up with high school players. I have a good relationship with Tim and Jon and have made recommendations in the past to help them select players for their summer team.

Their winter showcases have always been a help to me as well as other scouts. I would strongly advise any high school player and their parents to take advantage of the opportunity to receive top-flight instruction and advice that will aide in advancing their baseball career.

Best of Luck,

Rick Clendenin
