

Andrew Davis
Junior
WV State University

My name is Andrew Davis and I am a junior at WV State University. I played for the Huntington Hounds during my senior year, the summer of 2002. That was the best experience of my baseball career. Tim and Jon run a first class program and treat their players with respect. There are three things that I really like about being a Hound. First, you have tremendous exposure to quality college and professional scouts everywhere you play. Second, the competition you play against makes you play your best in order to compete. I knew that everyday I had to "Bring my Best". Third, the Hounds are like a family. You make many new friends and contacts for life. I would recommend anyone with the talent and dedication to play for the Hounds. It has been the best decision that I ever made in my baseball career.

Tim,
Please let me thank Baseball Ltd. for sending us your fine players. Through your tutelage the players who have attended your baseball academy are well underway to becoming outstanding college baseball players. Again, thanks for you commitment to area baseball players.

The Huntington Hounds have provided Tri-State baseball players an opportunity to compete against superior competition. Tim Adkins, founder of the Huntington Hounds and Baseball Ltd., has given his teams the opportunity to showcase the talent by entering them in many prominent tournaments. By playing in these tournaments, Hounds players are seen by many college coaches and professional scouts.

Hounds players are challenged to be the best they can be. I would highly recommend playing for the Hounds because of the level of competition and exposure to college and pro scouts.
