

Look who's talking about the Hounds

"Tim and Jon Adkins have a tremendous amount of baseball knowledge and experience that can help any player who is trying to be successful. They are both excellent teachers of the game and I would recommend any player trying to better himself to be a part of the Hounds Baseball organization. "

*Brian Sutphin
Alderson Broaddus College*

"As an asistant baseball coach at a major Division I university, I have been fortunate enough to watch many youth baseball programs across the country. In my opinion, the Huntington Hounds rank among the elite progams in the nation. The professionalism and talent level that the Hounds display are aspects that all college coaches, including myself, look for in future student athletes. "

*Michael Holmes
Assistant Baseball Coach
Wake Forest University*

"The instruction and the exposure you receive as a member of the Huntington Hounds is invaluable. The opportunity to learn, train, and compete with coaches that are experienced at the highest levels of collegiate and professional baseball is oustanding. As a former players college coach/recruiter, the skills you are developing with the Hounds will make you a player that is more consistent, productive and ultimately more attractive to college recruiters and pro scouts."

*John Farrell
Cleveland Indians*

"The opportunity to play for an organization such as the Huntington Hounds is an outstanding career move for baseball players who want instruction and exposure. Jon's credentials as a player at Oklahoma State and with professional baseball have prepared him to be an excellent teacher and leader: "

*Gary Ward
Head Baseball Coach
New Mexico State University*

"Summer programs give players a chance to improve their game. The Huntington Hounds teams play the top competition allowing their players to really raise the bar. "

*Tom "T--Bone "Baker
Scout, Pittsburgh Pirates*

"During my career, I have played with and against some of the best youth and professional programs in the country. Tim and Jon Adkins have created an outstanding platform for baseball development in the Huntington Hounds. The Hounds offer an opportunity for a young man to develop and move on to the next level. College and professional players need a high level of competition to gain knowledge and experience to further their careers. that is what the Hounds provide, and Tim and Jon provide all the tools needs. If you are looking for a challenge and unforgettable experience, I can see no place better than with the Hounds."

Jared Camp

"Pro scouts and college coaches only have so much time to evaluate players in the summer. Therefore, we gravitate towards the tournaments with the best teams and players. The Huntington Hounds are always one of those teams in the best tournaments with the best players. "

*Ed Santa
Colorado Rockies*
